YOUR SUBSCRIPTION IS OUT.

A blue mark in the above square is to indicate that your subscription to the COURIER is more than one year in arrears, and that unless you pay up by May 1, 1909, we will be compelled, under the government post-office rules and regulations, to discontinue the COURIER to your address. We don't want to do that unless you force us to do so by neglecting to pay your subscription.

This blue mark, if you do not erase it with the necessary amount of coin, will appear on your paper for the remainder of this month, and if we do not hear from you by that time, we will have to drop you from our list of subscribers.

You should have more respect for your Uncle Sam, more regard for your good name and credit and more consideration for an editor's needs than to let your subscription lapse into its present condition.

Won't you please do the right thing right NOW?

Yours Respectfully,

C. P. VANDIVER,
Pub. COURIER.

Probate Pointers.

In the matter of the collateral inheritance tax on the estate of Mrs. M. S. K. Creel: Mrs. Lena Newbold Caton is found to be liable for a tax of $23.33 on an inheritance of $466.66, and Mrs. Nora Newbold Marr for $36.66 on an inheritance of $733.33.

In the matter of the collateral inheritance tax on the estate of Wilfred L. Baker: The parties liable therefor and the amount of said tax for which each is liable is as follows: Mrs. Jennie B. Broadus, Mrs. Mary B. Morey and A. G. Baker $250, each, on an inheritance of $50, each.

In the matter of the collateral inheritance tax on the estate of Covey Heryford: Bentley Heryford, Nellie Donaldson and Emma Haskell are liable for $33, each, on an inheritance of $666, each; Louise Rodgers $50 and Maggie Rodgers $25 on an inheritance of $1,000 and $500, respectively.

On application of Fanny Shively, widow of Louis P. Shively, it is ordered that she be and is appointed administratrix of said Louis P. Shively's estate. Administratrix's bond in the sum of $1,500 is approved with W. D. Ainsworth and George and John Shively as securities. I. N. Dean and Jas. B. O'Bryan are the witnesses to make inventory.

The will of Mrs. Eliza Sanders of near Salisbury, dated April 2, 1909, is admitted to probate on the testimony of A. W. and Miss Laura Johnson as subscribing witnesses. Mrs. Sanders bequeathed all her property to her niece, Ada Christie. J. O. Snyder is named in the will as executor thereof and is so appointed by the court. Executor's bond in the sum of $100 is approved with R. P. Asbury and J. W. Luck as securities. J. W. Grizzell and Moses Gunn are the witnesses to make inventory.

The will of Karl Kloehn of Chariton township, made May 12, 1903, is admitted to probate on the testimony of H. W. and Charles A. Kothe as subscribing witnesses. By the terms of the will the testator's daughters, Matilda, wife of Frederick Sanders, and Louise, wife of August Freese, both of whom had previously received $600, are bequeathed an additional sum of $200, each. The remainder of the estate, real and personal, including a 40-acre farm, is given and bequeathed to decedent's son, Henry Adolph Kloehn, who is also named as executor of the will without bond and is so appointed by the court. H. W. and Charles A. Kothe are the witnesses to make inventory.

The will of the late A. L. Maupin of Prairie Hill, bearing no date, is admitted to probate on the testimony of J. W. Carlstead and Jas. E. Sears as subscribing witnesses. After first providing for the payment of all his lawful debts, the sum of $1, each, is bequeathed to decedent's brother, Columbus Maupin, and his half brother, Thomas Cunningham. All of the residue of the property, both real and personal, is bequeathed to testator's beloved wife, Lula Maupin, during her life or as long as she remains single. In the event of her marriage the property is to be divided equally between her and Thomas Dunlap, an adopted son, known by the name of Thomas Maupin. In case Mrs. Maupin should die while single, the said Thomas Dunlap becomes sole heir to the entire estate.

Roll of Honor.

Owing to the fact that the editor of the COURIER has been making a hand in the job department as well as getting out copy for the past 10 days our roll of honor is much more abbreviated this week than usual as we haven't had time to do any outside hustling. Nevertheless the following friends have either become new subscribers or have renewed their subscription since our last issue. May heaven bless 'em:

Cupid's Conquests.

MILLER-WALTER:—A nuptial event in which the people of Keytesville and vicinity felt much interest was solemnized at the Presbyterian church in this city Wednesday afternoon, April 21, 1909, at 4 o'clock when Blair Miller of the well-known local dry goods firm of Blair Miller & Co. led Miss Lena Walter to the hymeneal altar. The church was beautifully decorated in Scotch lilies, apple and pear blossoms and ferns. The wedding march was played by the bride's sister, Miss Katie Walter, and Messrs. Homer P. Mitchell and B. F. Brewer, Jr., served in the capacity of ushers. The bride presented a lovely picture in a beautiful and very becoming traveling costume of blue cloth with hat to match. The bridegroom was clad in regulation black. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Mitchell in that gentleman's usually impressive, graceful and filicitous manner, after which the bridal couple drove to the Keytesville station and boarded the 4:44 p. m. train for St. Louis where they will spend several days. The bride is one of Keytesville's fairest and most accomplished daughters, while the bridegroom is known and appreciated for his true worth as a thorough gentleman and splendid citizen. The COURIER joins their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness, peace and prosperity.
